The image displays a variety of gift packaging options. On the left, a stack of four boxes in red, green, and wood-grain finishes sits atop a larger green box. In the center, there are two tall, narrow boxes: one dark green with a circular window and a 'huti' logo, and one light brown with a vertical crease and a bottle-shaped cutout. To the right, a tall, light-colored wooden box with a handle and a logo is positioned next to a white, rounded rectangular box with the word 'Rechi' printed on it. Below these are several bags: a large tan paper bag with a green tree logo, a smaller tan paper bag containing two bottles, a dark green drawstring pouch, a maroon drawstring pouch, a dark blue paper bag with a white handle, and another tan paper bag with a white handle. A large, light blue circular graphic is in the background, and a blue circle highlights the central text.
